Wood eyed as a way to cut school heating costs

By ALISON ALOISIO

A state law mandating school consolidation was passed this year with the intent of cutting education costs in Maine.

While communities wrestle with that process, a regional effort may soon be underway to explore another way of saving—heating schools by using wood.

The idea came out of the ongoing Mahosuc Initiative, which studied the resources, economics, ecology, demographics and other aspects of the region.

A report produced this year is intended to provide communities a platform for identifying area needs and possible actions.

Jad Daley of the Northern Forest Alliance, a participant in the initiative, said 20 percent of Vermont students currently go to schools heated with wood.

The schools have been converted to woodchip and other biomass heating systems.

"The savings are unbelievable," said Daley. Compared to fossil fuel systems, the wood-fired systems use more of the energy potential in wood, he said.

In addition to saving 25 to 50 percent compared to oil, said Daley, "it's also wise to tie it to local woodlands. Landowners can sell their low-grade wood, or it can come from manufacturing waste."

The obstacle, he said, is the cost of the transition to a different system. A price tag of approximately $1.5 million is common to convert a school, Daley said.

But a possible new feder-

Work is underway on a plan to merge SADs 44, 43, 21 and Union 37.

SAD44 area representatives to the 60-member Regional Planning Committee have been assigned to the five subcommittees that will craft portions of the plan.

The Bethel district has a total of 15 people serving.

The consolidation plan will be voted upon by residents next year.

The Finance Subcommittee will consider such topics as cost-sharing among the towns, collective bargaining agreements, disposition of existing school indebtedness and a transition plan addressing the budget for the first year.

Members from SAD44 include Sid Pew (Andover), Dennis Doyon (Bethel) and Jim Largess (Newry).

The Governance Subcommittee will study how to organize representation on a new school board.

SAD44 members include Keith Farrington (Andover); Kelly Scotti (Andover); and Marcel Polak (Woodstock).

The Administration and Leadership Subcommittee will handle topics that include the vote on the plan, documentation of public meetings, and an explanation of how units will operate if one or more of the districts fail to approve

Bethel special Town Meeting set for Dec. 3

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Bethel will hold a special Town Meeting on Dec. 3, to take up three spending items, totaling $31,998.

If approved by voters, all the items would be paid out of undesignated fund balance.

The proposed spending includes $27,398 to repair and reshape a leaking roof at the town fire station, $3,000 to restore a half-time clerical position in the Finance Department, and up to $1,600 to replace a 500-gallon gasoline storage tank at the town garage.

At a joint meeting Monday evening, the Board of Selectmen and the town Budget Committee recommended approval of the three items.

The first two items were recommended unanimously by both boards, but on the third, the gasoline storage tank, the Budget Committee vote was split 5-3.

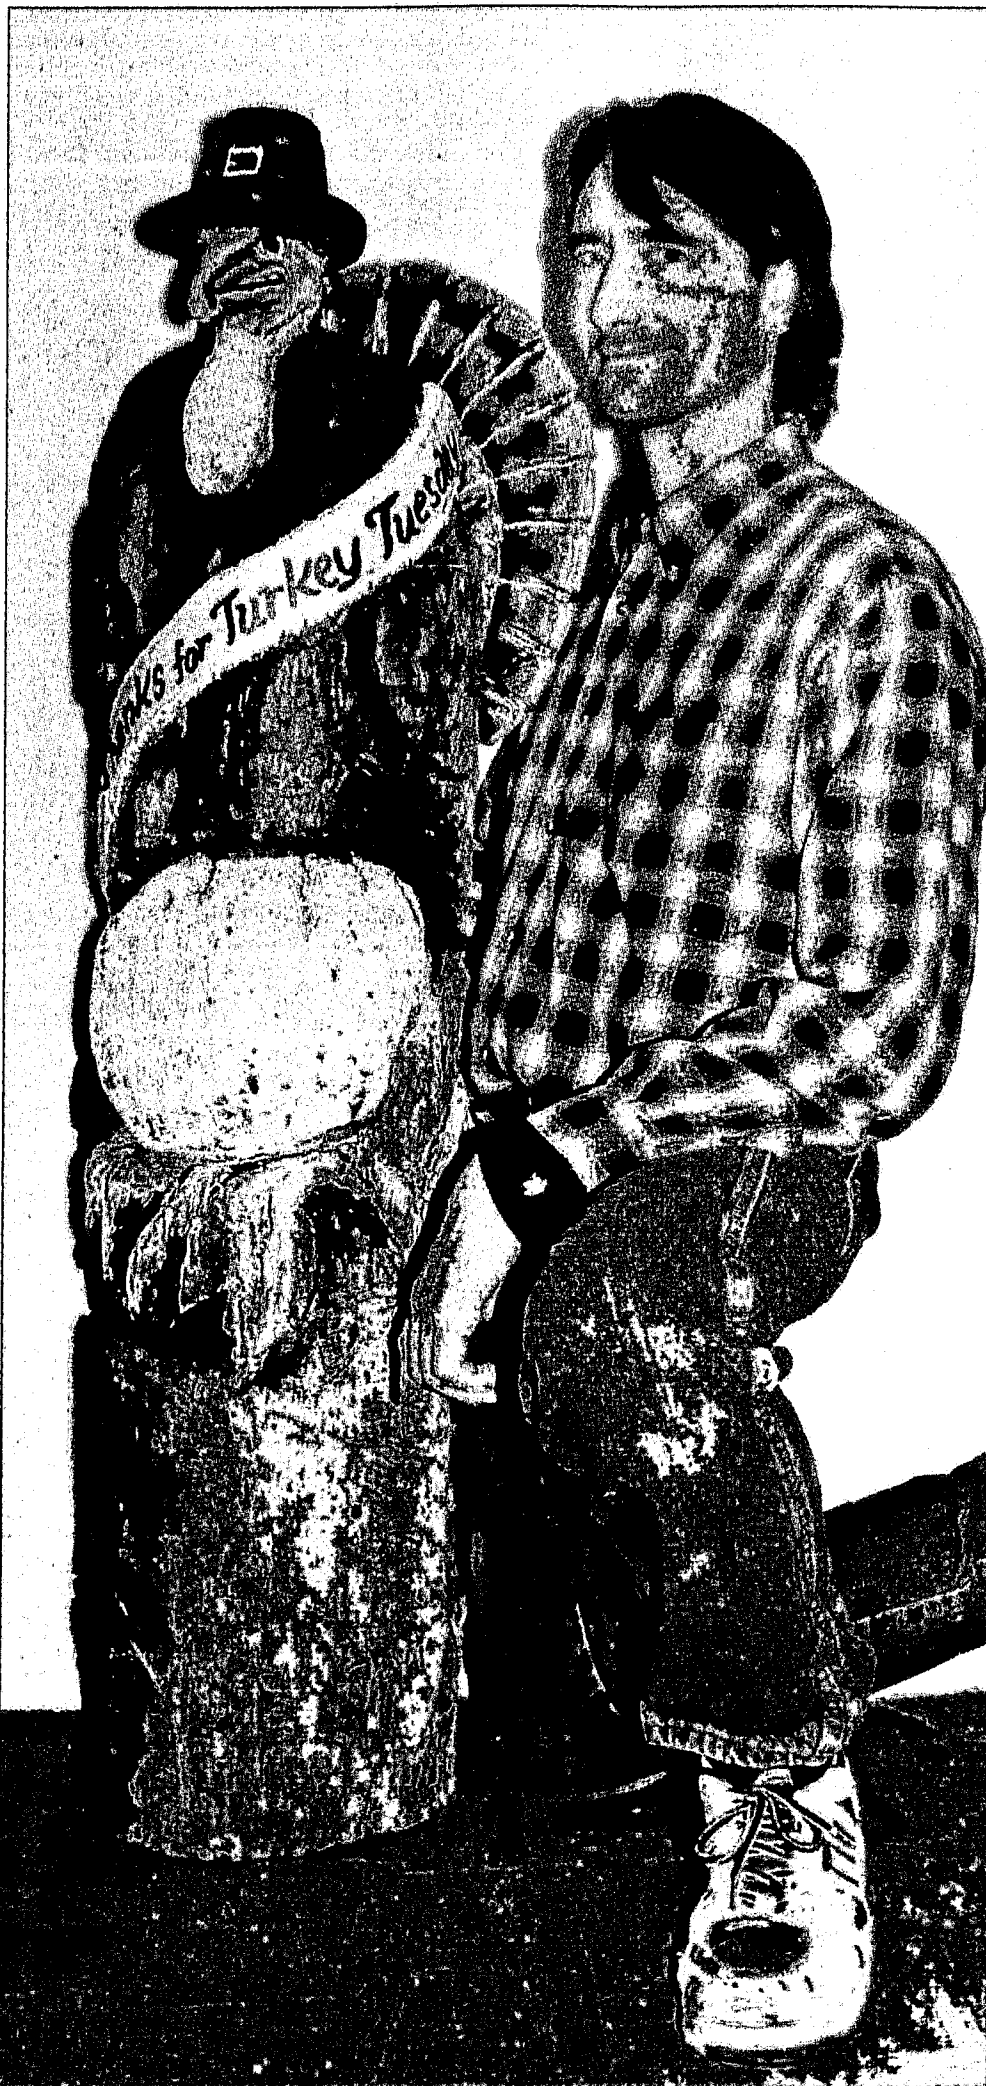

The two boards also agreed to postpone bringing two other spending items forward at this time.

Those two items include $27,398 to purchase a lot of approximately one acre behind the Bethel Rescue station on lower Main Street, and an unspecified amount of funds to purchase a backhoe.

The land in question would be used to accommodate possible future expansion and/or change of use for the rescue

Surprise carved for Turkey Tuesday

Artist Ken Irons of Woodstock carved a Thanksgiving turkey in recognition of Dave and Heather Nivus, who are the originators of the Bethel area's Turkey Tuesday gathering. This year is the 15th anniversary of the event, which was established to bring together people who must work on Thanksgiving. Using a chain saw, Irons carved the bird out of a pine log donated by Ron Cash of Oxford.

By ALISON ALOISIO

"I didn't think we could let this special anniversary pass without doing something," said Kate Carroll of Bethel.

In observance of the 15th Turkey Tuesday (which took place last night) Carroll asked local artist Ken Irons to carve a turkey—out of wood.

The bird would be a surprise presentation to Turkey Tuesday originators Dave and Heather Nivus at Tuesday's gathering.

It was their idea in 1992 to bring together people whose jobs prevented them from celebrating Thanksgiving on the actual day.

History

Larry Risko has been there from the beginning.

"It started with a small group of us, most working at the Sudbury on Thanksgiving," he said.

"The idea came from Dave and Heather—they suggested, 'Let's get together for turkey, Tuesday.'"

And so Turkey Tuesday was born. A handful of people celebrated the holiday at Dave and Heather's home.

Risko is one of the few people who have attended every Turkey Tuesday.

With the second and third Thanksgivings, he said, "it came to encompass a lot of folks who were 'orphaned' on Thanksgiving."

Many of them included people from other places working at Sunday River Ski Resort for the season.

By the fourth year, the group had to move to larger quarters: a building on Main Street in Bethel. And in the sixth year, the event relocated to its current site, the Locke Mills Legion Hall.

Today, the gathering draws more than 300 people.

In addition to bringing together people who might otherwise be alone for the holiday, Turkey Tuesday also aids others who might be hungry.

Each participant is asked to bring a canned-food item to the gathering to donate to the Bethel Food Pantry.

"It's a great way to spend Thanksgiving and give thanks, and help other folks," said Risko.

Greenwood Fire finds its new rescue truck

By MICHAEL DANIELS

It won't have cutting saws, air bags, hydraulic tools, Jaws of Life and several other items Greenwood firefighters had hoped for, but by this time next week Greenwood will have a new rescue/equipment truck.

And it won't belong to the town, as does the vehicle it is replacing, but to the Greenwood Fire Department Association.

The association has agreed to spend $18,000 to purchase a 1991 Ford truck from a fire department in Woodstock, Conn.

The GFDA has $13,000 of the total on hand, as a result of a variety of fundraising efforts undertaken after voters at two Town Meetings turned down two earlier proposals to buy a replacement truck.

The balance of the purchase price will be made up by a loan from an anonymous citizen, according to Fire Chief Jim Owens.

The price is less than 10 percent of what the Fire Department asked for when it made its first purchase proposal, at this year's annual Town Meeting in March.

At that time the request was for $225,000, to purchase a brand new rescue/equipment vehicle, which would replace ing, the department proposed spending $75,000 to purchase a 1992 Ford LTL9000 truck that was available from a department in Maryland.

The proposed purchase (which included $132,000 worth of additional equipment the Maryland department was throwing in at no the converted 1982 school bus that currently fills that roll.

But with voters looking at a proposed increase of 60 percent in town spending, the fire truck proposal was a non-starter.

Instead, they instructed Owens to come back to a later meeting with a less costly proposal.

In August he did. At a special Town Meet-charge) was recommended by both the Board of Selectmen and the town Capital Improvement Committee.

But again voters some facing property tax hikes of more than 100 percent, as a result of a town-wide revaluation — balked.

On a secret ballot the measure failed, 30-44.

The GFDA then took matters into its own hands, launching a fundraising campaign to purchase a replacement truck privately.

And recently they located a suitable vehicle, a 1991 Ford F700 diesel, in Connecticut, and this past weekend Owens, along with GFD Capt. Jeff Harren and GFDA President Dave Goodwin went down to inspect it.

They liked what they saw. "It's a very versatile unit, and it was designed for this use," Owens said.

A primary function of the new truck will be to carry the Cascade air system.

The system, used for quickly refilling air tanks at fire scenes, is Greenwood's contribution to NOMA, the mutual aid equipment pool shared by a dozen towns in northern Oxford County.

Since the new vehicle is being purchased privately, no town vote need be held.

CHRISTMAS FOR CHILDREN

To the Editor:

For the 20th consecutive year, the Bethel Rotary Club will once again be sponsoring its annual Christmas For Children program. Since 1987, this worthwhile project has helped to provide important assistance during the holiday season for many needy children and families who live in the SAD44 area. Anyone interested in donating to this effort is urged to send their contribution to: Bethel Rotary Club Christmas For Children, c/o Michele Varuolo, Treasurer, PO Box 471, Bethel, ME 04217.

Requests for assistance may be mailed to: David Murphy, 844 Mayville Road, Bethel, ME 04217.

Requests may also be dropped off at any school office in SAD44. Please note that assistance is provided only to families residing in the SAD44 area and requests can be accepted only from the parents of the children. The Rotary Club is pleased to be able to assist families with children up to and including high school age. All requests must include the name and age of each child. A telephone number and mailing address should also be included.

Once again this year, Rotarians will also be collecting donations at the Bethel Shop 'sn Save on several Saturdays between now and the holidays.

On behalf of the entire Bethel Rotary Club, I would like to thank the community for the ongoing generosity and support it has shown for this program over the years.

Best wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season!

TRY ON A WORLD SERIES RING

To the Editor:

Every spring the Crescent Park School fifth-grade class makes a trek to Boston to celebrate the completion of their elementary school experience. This is not only rites of passage but also a guided educational opportunity that allows their classroom learning to come to life. Whether they are reviewing history as they walk the Freedom Trail or honing their navigation skills as they use a map to find the Boston Science Museum, this trip opens the students' eyes to a world bigger than Crescent Park School.

Currently, parents are helping the children raise funds for the trip. The Crescent Park School fifth-grade auction has been one of the most successful fundraising events. This is possible due to the generous contributions from the local community and beyond. The unique and varied items up for auction make this must attend event.

So far this year's donations range from home-baked goods to river gravel to a limited edition print commissioned by the Red Sox called "World Series 2004 Game 1 Yawkey Way." A number of students will offer their services as mother's helpers or sidewalk shovelers. Principal Levi Brown is offering a "Pizza with the Principal" party for a student and four friends. We hope you can join us for this special evening Friday, Nov. 30.

A special addition to the evening's festivities is the Red Sox World Series Championship Ring from 2004, (the 2007 rings have not yet been made). For a $2 donation you have the opportunity to try on the ring and take a picture with it. We will also have a make-your-own ice cream sundae table for those with a sweet tooth.

Many businesses and individuals have been very generous in their donations this year. This is a great opportunity to kick off your holiday shopping or to find a special treat for yourself and at the same time support the fifth-grade class. So please join us for a fun-filled evening next Friday, Nov. 30. The ring and ice cream will start at 5 p.m. as well as the auction preview. The auction will start at 7 p.m. We will see you there!

Please contact Dee Fournier at Crescent Park School if you have any questions or would like to make a donation.

A WONDERFUL SEND-OFF

To the Editor

I would like thank all of the folks who called, sent e-mails, cards and attended the celebration of my retirement from the Mahoosuc Arts Council for their well wishes and kind words. It was a lovely party with many "unforgettable" touches, kudos to musicians James McLaughlin, Denny Breau and Tom Zicarelli.

Twenty years ago I helped conceive the idea of an arts council but it would not have succeeded without the nurturing support of many, many community-minded individuals, businesses, and foundations.

I've had a chance to form countless, lasting personal relationships through my work. The Bethel area is a special place because of its people. Some of those good folks remain at the helm of the Council and for that, I am grateful. My heartfelt thanks go to Amy Lehman and board members; Doug Alford, Helen Davies, Linda Gamble, Troy Jordan, Janet Ang, Mame Connors, Bill Frongillo, Tera Ingraham, Leslie Moore, Julie Hart, Susan DuPlessis, Margaret Haberman, and Julia Young for the wonderful send-off.

CHRISTMAS FAIR AND TEA

To the Editor:

The busy holiday season is here and we find ourselves bombarded with lists of things to do, shopping trips to make, and events to attend. I would encourage folks to spend time at home in the Bethel area enjoying local events as well as exploring area shops and restaurants.

Bethel is a "Christmas Card Town," and it would do us all good to step back, relax and enjoy it.

In particular, I hope that everyone can make Dec. 1 a Bethel Day as the Christmas season kicks off with many events and sales. I am particularly invested in the annual Christmas Fair and Tea at West Parish Congregational Church, United Church of Christ.

We invite everyone to join us from 1 to 4 p.m. Treat yourself to visiting with a friend over a cup of tea. The fair features handcrafted gifts and decorations, wreaths, table arrangements, baked goods, attic treasures and, of course, a cookie walk.

Proceeds from the fair support the work of the church, camp scholarships, and special mission projects including our Smile Fund, which provides assistance to those in need of reconstructive dental work.

After enjoying the Taste of Bethel and Craft Show at Telstar, please join us for tea. We look forward to visiting with neighbors and friends and hope that the time spent in Bethel and especially with us will begin our Christmas season in the spirit of peace and love.

GOODBYE TO BETHEL

To the Editor:

In a few weeks I will be leaving my job as development and public relations director at Maine Handicapped Skiing to move to Florida to help take care of my stepmom. I am writing to say good bye and give my heartfelt thanks to the many individuals in Bethel who have helped make my job at MHS really wonderful.

For the past eight years, I have asked many individuals, businesses and organizations in Bethel and Newry to help support MHS's annual Ski-A-Thon and our Veterans/No Boundaries program. Many people consistently stepped up to the plate to support MHS, making my job so much easier.

The love and admiration for Maine Handicapped Skiing by local people has always made me very proud of my job.

I would also like to say goodbye to all the wonderful people I met while living in Bethel. One of the reasons I like Bethel so much is the strength of the community and people working together to make this town such a great place to work and live. It has always been a treat for me, after living in New York City, to walk down the street on a Saturday morning greeting people at the post office, hardware store, library and the IGA. There is a really wonderful sense of community here that I will miss a great deal.

When I came here to live eight years ago, I had been a New York City woman with a three-hour round-trip work commute and whose motto was "spend money to save time."

I will admit it took me a long time to adjust to rural living. The fact that I traveled to Portland for my job quite a bit helped ease the way over the years. But I have come to enjoy the slow pace of western Maine; my incredibly beautiful drive to work every day looking out on the mountains and forests, my trips to the covered bridge so my dog could get a good swim, and just hanging out at DiCocco's Marketplace, meeting up with friends on any given day.

Years ago, my office in Brooklyn, N.Y., looked out on the Brooklyn Bridge with over 200,000 cars whizzing by every day. My office at Maine Handicapped Skiing allowed me to see a fox come by the window many days at 2:30 p.m. on his hunt for dinner.

And the buzz of hummingbirds sipping their breakfast at my office window made my summer perfect.

It has been a real privilege to work with the wonderful people at the Western Mountains Senior College and the offices of SAD44 Adult Education. I have enjoyed being a board member of the College, helping to bring interesting programs to Bethel and much-needed health information to people. It was also a pleasure to volunteer for different groups in Bethel; I hope to find similar great organizations in Florida where I can volunteer.

I am on to a new adventure and I just wanted to thank everyone I have worked with, both professionally and as a volunteer — for helping make my time in Bethel so special.

I never did learn to ski, through no fault of the dozens of people who offered to teach me (sorry, Mary Ellen G.).

Perhaps I will find the "sport" of my dreams in Florida, something involving warm water and less clothes!

I hope to be back to visit real soon.

Auditions for play at CPS

BETHEL—Auditions for the Children's Stage Adventures (CSA) production of "The Emperor's New Clothes" will be held at 2:45 p.m., Monday, Dec. 3, at Crescent Park School gym. Approximately 50 local children, grades kindergarten through 5th grade, will be cast to appear in the show with CSA actors/educators Kristen Pickthall and Hilary Kraus. There is no guarantee that everyone who auditions will be cast in the play. A chorus will be open to children not cast in the play. The performances will take place on Saturday, Dec. 8 at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. at Crescent Park Elementary School. Set in the frontier town of Royal City, "The Emperor's New Clothes" is a new musical telling of the popular tale by Hans Christian Anderson, joined with the spirit of the American West. Children planning to audition should arrive by the scheduled starting time and plan to stay for the entire two-hour session. No advanced preparation is necessary to take part in the auditions. Rehearsals will be conducted from 2:45 to 7 p.m. every day of the week prior to performances. Although not all cast members will be needed at every session, those auditioning must have a clear schedule for the entire week, and if selected, be able to attend all rehearsals for their role. A detailed rehearsal schedule will be distributed at the conclusion of the auditions. Cast members scheduled to rehearse for the full four hours in one day will be asked to bring a sack meal or snack. The first rehearsal will begin about 30 minutes after the auditions. Kristen Pickthall, from Tecumseh, Ontario, Canada, and Hilary Kraus, from Tampa, Fla., will be the team of actor/educators from Children's Stage Adventures. This is the team's first tour with CSA though both have extensive backgrounds working with children in theatre. 2007-2008 is Children's Stage Adventures' ninth year touring the northeast with 50 residencies scheduled. Based in Sullivan, N.H., CSA is a nonprofit organization supported in part by charitable donations. This coming year hundreds of cast members will take to the stage to the delight and applause of their families, friends, communities, neighbors and teachers. The residency in CPS is made possible by the Crescent Park, Woodstock, and Andover PTAs.

Thieves target cooking oil

LEWISTON—police are investigating two thefts in which somebody took hundreds of gallons of used cooking oil from two restaurants. Police say Cathay Hut and Chick-A-Dee restaurants reported the thefts this month. The thefts come at a time when the price of home heating oil has risen to more than $3 a gallon on average in Maine. Frank Norman, the CEO of Future Fuel Technologies, said used cooking oil could be filtered and added to a fuel tank to be used as heating source.

State set up energy task force

PORTLAND—Gov. John Baldacci says he is setting up an energy task force to help coordinate state resources to deal with potential fuel shortages during Maine's upcoming heating season. With heating oil prices already at record levels, Baldacci indicated that fuel shortages or price spikes could trigger emergency situations that require the opening of public shelters and state monitoring of price gouging. The governor cautioned that the state's ability to influence global markets is limited. He said Maine cannot, by itself, solve the nation's dependence on foreign oil.

County among those hit by mumps

AUGUSTA—Maine health officials are issuing new vaccination recommendations for mumps after the state's first outbreak since the 1980s. There have been seven confirmed cases since September and another one to two dozen possible cases, the Maine Center for Disease Control and Prevention said Monday. Public Health Director Dr. Dora Anne Mills issued an advisory to K-12 schools, colleges and universities, and hospitals asking them to review and update mumps vaccine records for students and employees. The new recommendations could result in some hospital workers and university students having to get additional mumps vaccines, Mills said. In K-12 schools, students who have not been vaccinated will have to be excluded from school for 18 days if their school experiences an outbreak. Mumps is viral infection whose symptoms include fever, headaches, muscle ache and swelling of the salivary glands. At one time it was common in the U.S., affecting some 200,000 people a year, but the number of cases plunged in 1967 with the introduction of the measles mump rubella vaccine, Mills said. It's thought that there haven't been any cases in Maine since the 1980s, Mills said. Since March, more than 900 cases have been confirmed in Canada, with the outbreak centered in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, according to Maine CDC advisory. Most cases have occurred in people ages 17-37, many of whom are college students. In Maine, patients have ranged in age from the late teens to the late 50s. Cases have been confirmed in Cumberland, Androscoggin, Oxford and Somerset counties.

al program, currently under consideration in Congress, could provide 50/50 matching grants and technical expertise to communities wishing to pursue wood heat.

The Northern Forest Alliance has been working with other organizations, including the Biomass Energy Resource Center of Vermont, to promote and educate communities on the wood heat option.

BERC, according to its website, "provides assistance in program design and implementation, and helps individual schools analyze their biomass energy options and implement cost-effective, environmentally responsible solutions."

Within a couple of months, said Daley, the organizations involved "hope to get a scoping process going" in the Mahoosuc region.

If there seems to be potential for utilizing wood heat in schools, discussion with school systems and/or in public forums could follow.

SAD44 members are: Ann Holt, Fred Henderson and Dick Melville (all from Greenwood); and Ron Deegan (Woodstock).

The K-12 Curriculum Subcommittee's responsibilities will include studying educational programs across the districts.

The SAD44 members are Lynn Arizzi (chairman, from Bethel), Bonnie Largess (Newry) and Mary-Ellen Gartner from Woodstock.

District-wide Services will have responsibility for such tasks as the re-organization of administration, transportation, building maintenance and special education, and the election of the initial new school board members.

SAD44 members include

Ron Deegan (chairman); and Tink Conkwright (Newry).

Each of the committees has met once.

The superintendents of the existing districts will serve as resources for information throughout the process.

The backhoe would replace the town's current machine, which could be reassigned to a trash compaction role at the Tri-Town Transfer Station.

But on both of these items, the two boards agreed more exploration of the town's options was needed.

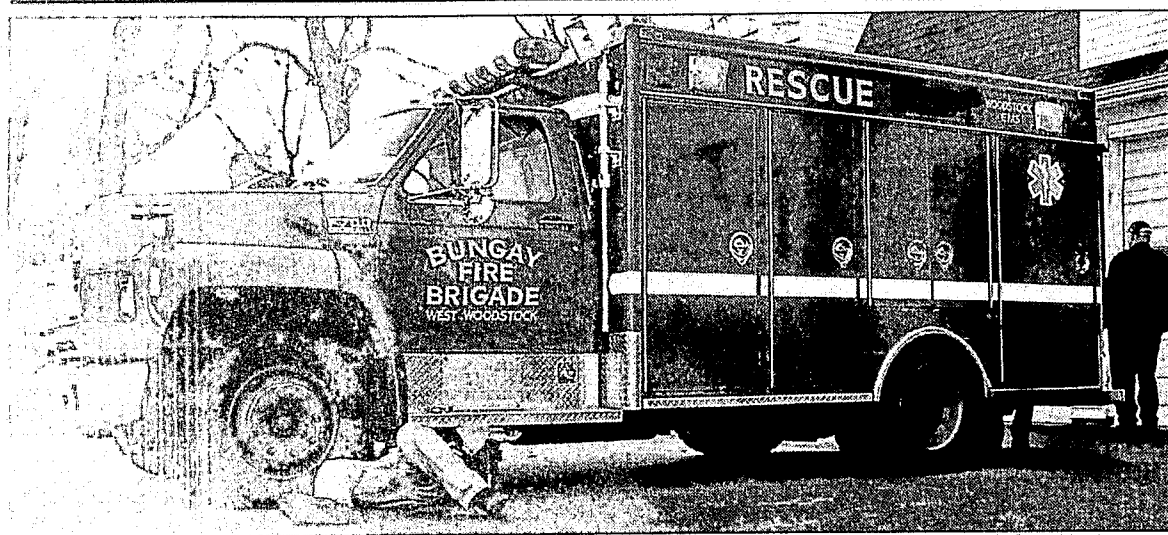

And, given the non-urgent nature of both articles, it was felt they would be more appropriately considered by voters at the annual Town Meeting in June.

The special Town Meeting on Dec. 3 will be held at 7 p.m. in the Town Office meeting room.

Down the road, however, Owens said, he expects the GWFA and the town to discuss a possible lease, or lease-purchase agreement regarding the vehicle.

Those in recovery from alcohol/drug addiction often get tired of attending recovery group meetings that have become predictable and stale. To move on in the recovery process, you may need to move to a Next Step group. You are invited to join in a different kind of addiction recovery group, facilitated by an experienced and knowledgeable person. The group is open to everyone who feels that they may benefit from a change and will start in the Bethel area on Wednesday evenings from 6-7:30pm.

at the West Bethel Union Church and conducted his first service on Sunday. He was welcomed with open arms by the congregation.

On Saturday evening Mike and I attended one of the Local Knowledge programs sponsored by the Mahoosuc Land Trust. It was a slide show and talk presented by New England author Howard Frank Moshier.

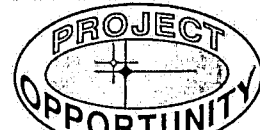

The audience was treated to about an hour and a half of slides, stories, and entertainment by Moshier, who has written several novels about life in the Northeast Kingdom of Vermont.

Barbara Mahler recently found out that she had won six free tickets from OHM-PAA (Oxford Hills Music and Performing Arts Association). She had filled out a survey when she was at the performance of "Don't Dress for Dinner" recently, and that put her name in the running.

I'm jealous, because I filled out one of those surveys, too, and I didn't win a thing! Well, enjoy the shows, Barbara!

Telstar's National Honor Society once again hosted their annual turkey dinner for senior citizens on Sunday noon. Verna Thayer and Jane Hosterman attended and were once again impressed with the young people, who were thoughtful, kind, and helpful hosts. As usual there was a big drawing of door prizes donated by area businesses. A good time was had by all, and I expect attendees didn't need any supper that night.

I am thankful for many things, but most of all family and friends, and being able to live in such a beautiful part of the world. We will be fifteen at the table this year. Happy Thanksgiving to all, and count your blessings!

NOTICE: The annual meeting of Project Opportunity, Inc. will be held in conjunction with its regular Board of Directors meeting on November 27, 2007 at 4pm at Telstar High School in the Principal's Conference Room.

Great Ideas for a Bountiful Thanksgiving Feast!

Cranberry-Walnut Sauce

Everybody's favorite...sweet and slightly tart.

12 oz. pkg cranberries
1½ cups sugar
1 cup water
3 oz. pkg strawberry gelatin mix
20 oz. can crushed pineapple
20 oz. pkg frozen whole strawberries, partially thawed
Garnish: chopped walnuts

Bring cranberries, sugar, water and gelatin to a boil over medium heat; stir constantly. Heat until thickened and cranberries have popped; remove from heat. Stir in pineapple with juice and strawberries. Pour into a serving bowl; refrigerate for at least 2 hours. Sprinkle with walnuts before serving. Serves 10 to 12.

Blue Cheese-Broccoli Casserole

The blue cheese really makes this side dish different from all the rest!

2 tbsp butter
2 tbsp all-purpose flour
1 cup milk
3 oz. pkg cream cheese, softened
¼ cup crumbled blue cheese
2 10 oz. pkgs frozen chopped broccoli, cooked and drained
1/3 cup bread crumbs

Melt butter in a 2-quart saucepan; whisk in flour until smooth and creamy, about one minute. Gradually add milk; stir until thickened. Mix in cheeses; stir until melted. Place broccoli in a buttered 2-quart casserole dish; pour cheese mixture on top, stirring until well coated. Sprinkle with bread crumbs; bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Serves 8.

Caramelized Acorn Squash

Acorn squash is so easy to grow...add a few plants to your garden next spring!

2 acorn squash
1 cup butter, divided
2 cups brown sugar, packed and divided

Slice the top 2 inches from the tops of both squash; scoop out seeds and discard. Place ½ cup butter and one cup brown sugar into each squash; place on and ungreased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees until soft, about one hour. Makes 2 servings.

Country Butterscotch Yams

For an extra treat, top with marshmallows and return to the oven until melted.

8 yams, peeled, quartered and boiled
½ cup corn syrup
½ cup brown sugar, packed
¼ cup half and half
2 tbsp margarine
½ tsp salt
½ tsp cinnamon

Arrange yams in an ungreased 13x9 baking pan; bake at 325 degrees for 15 minutes. Combine remaining ingredients in a 2 quart saucepan; boil for 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Pour over yams; bake 15 minutes, basting often. Makes 6 servings.

Golden Parmesan Potatoes

What are you going to do with the rest of that 20 pound bag of potatoes you bought to make mashed potatoes? Here you go!

¼ cup all-purpose flour
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
¾ tsp salt
1/8 tsp pepper
6 potatoes, peeled and cubed
1/3 cup butter, melted

Combine flour, cheese, salt and pepper in a plastic zipping bag; set aside. Moisten potatoes with water; place in bag. Shake to coat; set aside. Coat bottom of a 13x9 baking pan with butter; add potatoes. Bake at 375 degrees for one hour and 15 minutes. Serves 6.

Deep Fried Turkey

Because of the high heat, the skin sears quickly...the result is the juiciest, tastiest turkey ever!

8-10 lb turkey, fresh or thawed
5 gallons oil
marinade syringe
dried sage, salt and pepper to taste

Remove timer, neck and giblet packages from turkey; rinse inside and outside of turkey, patting dry with paper towels. Set up a pot, basket and burner designed for outdoor deep frying on a level dirt or grassy area. Pour enough oil into the outdoor-type deep fryer so that it will completely cover the turkey but won't overflow once the turkey is immersed. Heat oil to 325 degrees. While oil is heating, inject turkey with marinade; rub outside with desired seasonings. Place turkey in the basket or on the metal stand with legs pointing upward; slowly and carefully lower into oil. Heat approximately 3 minutes per pound; turn off heat. Gradually lift turkey out of oil, allowing oil to drain into pot; turn off propane. Test turkey for doneness by inserting a meat thermometer into the breast meat of the turkey. Without touching bone, the thermometer should register 180 degrees. Serves 8 to 10.

Cookies & Cream Cake

For even more chocolatey taste, try using chocolate sandwich cookies with chocolate filling...yum!

18 ½ oz pkg white cake mix
1¼ cup water
1/3 cup oil
3 egg whites
1 cup chocolate sandwich cookies, crushed

Combine cake mix, water, oil, and egg whites in a large mixing bowl; blend on low speed until just moistened. Blend on high for 2 minutes; gently fold in crushed cookies. Pour into 2 greased and floured 8 inch round baking pans; bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center removes clean. Cool for 10 minutes; remove from pans to a wire rack to cool completely. Frost. Serves 12.

Frosting:

4 to 4½ cups powdered sugar
½ cup shortening
¼ cup milk
1 tsp vanilla extract

Blend ingredients together until smooth and creamy.

Gilead

by
Lin Chapman

It doesn't seem possible that Thanksgiving is here already. Hope fully, everyone enjoys the holiday. There is always something to be thankful for if you stop and take a look around.

There were two birds at the feeder that are not usually around this time of year. One of them was a starling. According to the bird book the feathers are brown instead of black in the winter. The other bird looked similar but after a closer look there was a yellow bar on the wing, and after consulting the bird book again it appeared to be a red-winged blackbird. The flicker is still around along with the usual winter birds.

This area did not get the snow that was predicted last Friday. There were several cars and trucks coming from New Hampshire that had snow on them, and when we went shopping in Gorham, there was a little bit on the ground in some places.

My brother, Steve McLain, stopped by the house on his way home from the Transfer Station. We got to talking about the North Road and where the road was that went into where our Uncle Charlie had a camp in Ingall's Valley. One of the roads came out by the Carriage House that was on the O. B. Brown property.

Last Saturday, Hugh and I headed to Bethel to go to the grand opening of Jill Buynowski's new shop, Village Sweets. We found quite a few interesting items to choose from. While we were there, a few locals stopped by to check things out. There are some great gift items for the candy lover on your list.

Our grandson, William, had a birthday on Nov. 6, and since he was visiting his dad for the weekend, we got to celebrate with a surprise party at Tim and Michele's house. Those attending were Michele's parents, Leo and Ann Croteau of Berlin, Annie Chapman, Sidney Chapman and Ajay Landry. Tim and Michele's neighbor, Leslie, and her son, Nate, stopped by for the party and some cake and ice cream. Sue Saunders was hostess for a baby shower for her daughter and son-in-law, Nikki and Matt Petillo. There were several friends and family there, and Nikki and Matt received many lovely gifts.

There will be a gathering at the Town Hall on Dec. 2 from 1 to 3 p.m. for Fernand and Beverly Corriveau for their many years of dedication to the town of Gilead. Stop by for some coffee, tea, punch and desserts and show your support for Fernand and Bev. They both have had a trying and expensive year. (Fernand's narrow escape with the rabid bat incident and Bev's recent hospital visit), but they continued to keep their part of the town's business running as normal as possible.

Selectmen's Meeting

The Selectmen met on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the Town Hall. The purchase of the building next to the Hall was discussed. Work will begin soon on estimating how much it will cost to renovate the building so a figure can be brought to the annual Town Meeting in March for approval.

Comprehensive Plan Com.

The CPC met on Thursday, Nov. 15, at the Town Hall. There were four members of the committee present: chairman, Jack Pucak; secretary, Becky Morin; Hugh Chapman and Norm Buttrick, who will be working on the historical and archaeological aspect of the plan. There were two representatives from AVCOG present, Ferg Lea and John Maloney. Assignments were given out to the members of the committee in the areas that they will be collecting data for the update of the plan. Linsley Chapman, town clerk, was also in attendance. The next meeting will be held on Dec. 18.

Gilead Historical Society

Two members of the GHS are participating in the updating of the Gilead Comprehensive Plan. Hugh Chapman will be working on the historical section and Norm Buttrick will be handling the archaeological section. They will be putting together a brief history of Gilead that will be used as an introduction. They will also be mapping the loca-

Andover

by Melinda Averill

Andrea Savitz, president of Andover Service Circle (ASC), tells me that Judy Michaud's phone at 392-1221 has been jingling away with positive responses for the Circle's invitation to its 6th annual Senior Appreciation Dinner at the Andover Town Hall on Monday, Dec. 3.

For all those who have yet to call Judy, the R.S.V.P. deadline is Sunday, Nov. 25, so that ASC can plan to have plenty on hand for all. So please ring up Judy, if you plan to come.

As in the past, the meal is a gift to Andover's seniors (those who have reached 65 years of age) and the disabled. Each eligible person attending is encouraged to bring along a guest. The doors of Andover Town Hall will be opened at 4 p.m. for some social time before 4:30 p.m. when a sumptuous potluck dinner followed by desserts will be served.

Compacted Recycling is here! For every ton we recycle, we save $100 in tax dollars. This really adds up when each of us pitch in. The average household generates over a ton of waste a year, so you do make an impact. If you need more information on how to get started, please ask Dale or reach out to a Transfer Station committee member.

There are openings on both the Planning Board and on the Recreation Committee. Please call the Town Office for more information on how you can get involved. Meetings are open to the public, so feel free to sit in to learn more. The Planning Board meets on the first and third Mondays at 7 p.m. at the Town Office. The Rec Committee meets the second Monday of the month, 7 p.m. at the Town Office.

Deer count through Sunday, Nov. 18, at Mill Market is 54.

Happy birthday this week to Whitney Mills on Friday, the 23rd; Brianne Bailey on the 24th; Adam Mahar on the 25th; and Kaylin Milligan on Monday, the 26th.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving Day. Take a minute this weekend and think of at least one thing that you have to be thankful for.

Hanover

by Clem Worcester

The annual Hanover Town Meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 27, at the Hanover Town House, 12 Howard Pond Road. To be elected off the floor will be one selectperson, a school committee member, as well as the town clerk, tax collector and treasurer. The select board and school committee are three-year terms and the others are one-year terms. The select board appoints other town positions.

Also up for discussion are budget items. The proposed budget has increased slightly over last year. Town Reports are in production and will be distributed soon. The reports are also available at the Town Office during regular office hours.

The Rumford Grange Christmas Wreath Sale will take place at the Rumford Center Grange Hall next Saturday, Nov. 24, and Sunday, Nov. 25, from 1 to 6 p.m. each day. Wreaths vary in size from 12-inch up to 28-inch. Other large wreaths and sprays will be available the days of the sale. Call ahead to get your orders in. Call Vicki at 364-2129.

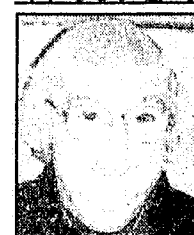

Our article last week from the Hanover Neighborhood Watch created quite a lot of concern within the area. Caution and watchfulness are always important even if there may not be imminent danger. If anyone feels a threatening situation exists, call 911.

The University of Massachusetts has a study underway in the area of moth winter behavior. Plastic canisters have been strategically placed to collect samples and will be picked up at the end of the study. It is important that the collection canisters be left intact for a successful completion of the project.

Now for Knights of Pythias

news. A reception for Grand Chief Linda Brewer of Boothbay took place Sunday at Brunswick. Area folks attending were Grand Chancellor Freeman Farrington, Danny Bennett and his wife, Grand Senior Janice Bennett, Grand Master at Arms Michael Bennett and Donna and Clem Worcester.

West Paris

by Joyce Lamb

Winter is coming. Thursday brought us a few snowflakes. Peg Perham reported from the top of High Street that the ground there was white, but it did not last. It has remained cold enough on the ski slopes to the north of us, so with the help of the snowmaking machines, skiers have been out.

Jim Burke will lead the service at the Universalist Church in West Paris on Sunday, the 25th. He is also the organist. Do come for there should be extra music. A coffee hour follows.

On Thanksgiving Day, Ron and Lisa Darling and girls, Megan, Katie, and Olivia will entertain Dede Chase and Nester and Rachel Ruokolainen.

Ninety-seven Perham relatives and friends will enjoy their Thanksgiving feast at the Universalist Church.

Marta Clements will entertain her family of 10 at her home in South Woodstock.

Over a hundred attended the annual chicken pie supper at the Universalist Church. Many hands made for a smooth-running operation. There was plenty of delicious food. One guest stated it must be heaven in the kitchen for the men were washing the dishes!

Jim Burke is pleased to announce that he is a grandfather for the first time, for his daughter, Jessica and husband Sal Mena, have given him a grandson named Ian. Congratulations to all!

Hugh Hill of High Street, South Paris, died at the Veterans' Home on Thursday, Nov. 15.

Daughter Myrna Lamb from Bountiful, Utah and granddaughter Amber Lamb from Colorado are in the area for a few days.

Muffin will be alone for the feast day for I will be in Augusta with Peg Lamb and husband Mike Seaton. Jude Lamb and husband Rob Collins will be there from Lamoine. Myrna and Amber Lamb will go down with me. I am sure Muffin had rather be at home alone than have a crowd around her house.

East Bethel

by Nancy Mercer

Millie Jackson, Roger and Louise Twitchell, Dot Bartlett and

Nancy Mercer attended the Bethel Senior Citizens Club meeting at the Legion Hall in Locke's Mills on Nov. 14.

Mary Bean, Arthur Hertell, Pat and Richard Kimball, Roger and Louise Twitchell, and Ken and Amy Scribner enjoyed a very good dinner put on and served by the National Honor Society students at Telstar High School on Nov. 18.

Florence Hastings is now at Market Square Health Care Center, South Paris. She is doing very well and does enjoy visitors.

Sonny and Bettyann Hastings will spend Thanksgiving at Jack and Julie Warwick's in Milford, N.H. The whole family, children and grandchildren, will also be there for the day.

Clint and Martha Schaum visited Sonny and Bettyann Hastings on Nov. 20 and started the drive back to Atlanta, Ga., the next day.

I hope everyone has a good Thanksgiving Day. God Bless the Troops.

everyone has been able to stay warm and cozy.

On Sunday, Nov. 4, Arthur Wardwell passed away at the age of 91. Arthur was, indeed, a country gentleman, welcoming all with a smile and always ready with a story.

When we had first moved into the area, Arthur honored Dana by asking for his assistance with putting in the wood for the winter. Although we had not seen or spoken with Arthur for the past few years, we will miss him. For those who were fortunate enough to be called friends and family, who had the privilege of seeing him on a regular basis, we are certain they will miss him dearly.

Arthur is now before the Throne, standing with God and his Savior. It is for us, his family, friends, acquaintances and community members, that we offer our sympathy for. But, we cannot say he will be sadly missed, for we will always remember his friendliness and cheer, his sense of humor and readiness to accept others into the fold. We can say that he will be greatly missed, missed with a smile as a story told or time spent with him is remembered. God Bless you, Arthur.

Dyana is home for the holiday, as we are certain other college-bound children are, too (hi Marissa!). We hope for everyone a special time of sharing with family and friends, a time of giving thanks and holding closely to those we love.

We all know the wonderful hymn lyrics, "count your blessings, name them one by one," but, as David Lloyd likes to say "count your blessings, name them ton by ton," and it does seem so much more appropriate.

Best wishes for a happy and safe week. God Bless and Keep.

Historical Society

At the November meeting of the Historical Society, Paul and Vicki Billings told of their journey along Boston's Freedom Trail from the Common to Bunker Hill.

President Elaine Roberts appointed the following committees: Finance, Annela Burnham, Olive Risko and Elaine Roberts; Building, Paul Billings, Elaine and Don Hoyt; Research, Olive Risko, Elaine and Addie O'Neil; Program, Paul Billings; Food, Mary and Vicki Billings.

Olive Risko gave a research report on barn dancing and the Ford family came and shared some old photos. The members were delighted to have young Richard Ford become a member at the November meeting, and he plans to do a program in January on some photos of Woodstock he and his parents have.

The December meeting, however, will be a potluck supper and Christmas party with an exchange of gifts. The supper starts at 6 p.m. Meetings this winter will be at the town conference room. The Historical Society museum fosters awareness of our New England heritage. So does Larry's Cultural Center, and that is open year-round, whereas the society museum closes for the winter.

Greenwood City

by Wayne Hakala

All right I messed up last week and have heard about it. Probably happen again and will catch the dickens all over.

With this weather in the past few days, I just had to think of a number of years ago on East B Hill. Father had a camp there that originally started as two pickup campers. Wasn't long and it grew into a full-fledged camp filled with more "bull" and a lot of happiness. It was named very appropriately "Old Milwaukee." I still have the sign that I crafted for the camp. Father never did hang it outside, as he was afraid some fool would make off with it and father sure safeguarded it.

Now the camp had all the comforts of a standard hunting camp. There was an old "Clarion" stove for heat. And heat it did well. A long table took center stage of all the activities from a breakfast fit for kings, Thanksgiving dinners with all the fixings and numerous games of chance. But most of all was the togetherness of family and friends. Oh the stories that have been told around that table!

As you can well imagine, it was a battle for the lower bunks. Father always believed in being toasty at camp and it usually was more to the tune of burnt toast by morning on the top bunks. Lower bunks were just right for sleeping. You could snuggle up to the outside wall and be comfy in your birthday suit. Long toward morning pulling up the sleeping bag was an option. But that trip to the two-holer was a bit brisk. Shining the flashlight on the thermometer showed a bit chilly -10. You didn't take too long doing your morning constitution.

There was one night that father, Claire and I was at camp. After all the dinner chores taken care of and gear readied for morning there was no battle for lower bunks. About the time we were all settled down, a bear decided to start calling to pick a fight with the bear up by the deer crossing of the world. First bear wasn't that far up the mountain behind camp and could be heard without aid of hearing devices. The one up at the deer crossing of the world was a bit lower, but the meaning was the same. They were both saying, "I can kick your butt."

Come morning, father and I started out. Father was going to the deer crossing of the world and I was to just wander up in due time. See if I could start one up to father. I moved off to my right figuring that I might come across a trail of the fool bear. Hadn't gone too far and the trail of a very mad bear could be seen with a blindfold on. Now he was wasting no time to get to the top and kick butt. Or whatever bears do. So I kept up my zigzagging up the mountain-side and crossing the trail a blind man could follow. Bout half way up the mountain, the snow cover came into play. Now a whole tribe of blindfolded dudes could follow the torn-up snow and leaves. Mr. Bear must have been really getting an attitude and wanting to do more than kick butt. Or whatever bears do.

I figured that I had to be about where I needed to be by my trusty timepiece and about that time a shot rang out and I could not figure where it came from. I was just at the deer crossing of the world and the sound came from every direction. I stood there for a minute and decided I better ask if father dropped one. I called out, "did you drop it?" Came back a response of "Yup." I looked and looked to no avail. Finally I asked where he was. Came back the response, "right here." After several exchanges of bull I asked again. Came back the response of, "look up here you damned Finn." Sure enough there was father up on the edge of the bowl that made up the deer crossing of the world. And the sound just went around it in Quad stereo or better.

Now we got the small buck ready and father gave me the honor of dragging that nice buck out. As you can imagine up there on the snow, life was easy. Downhill on snow and just could steer it down an old skidder road. Ruts more like it. Bout the time we hit the bare ground life got a bit harder. I kept thinking of deer liver for supper. Well father let me think of the deer liver for supper till we was about down to the van. And you know what he told me. Father said that Claire had to go back to McFalls and she was bringing back lobster and clams.

Now if those aren't memories to cherish, I'll give you a special sign.

I do ask that everyone have a special Thanksgiving. And please ask the old boy up there to see that our troops are taken care of. I will, but a word or two from all will add to the special thought for him. Smile!

Another reminder that the Recycling Center is collecting woolen hats, mittens and scarves which they plan to distribute to needy youngsters, especially now that cold weather has set in. There is a box well-marked for these items.

At the BR Trading Post 20 deer were tagged on Saturday, the 17th. This makes the total to date of 95 deer. Stop by for hunting supplies or for the lunch specialty of the day, which is chili this week. Lots of goodies to munch on as you hunt in the cold as well as warm head and hand gear for sale.

Don and Sylvia Gray are now living under a beautiful blue steel roof. I find it very attractive as I drive by.

Best wishes to families as they celebrate this special weekend.

Bethel

Mayville and Around Town

By Donald G. Bennett
Talking with one of Main Street's merchants last week, I was told that the business concerned was very grateful for the Bethel Police Department's nighttime security patrols and wished to thank the department for their diligence.

Eli Mann has made his mark in Mayville. My neighbor, Gary Savage, has been turning his garage into a wood-working shop for his various projects. He needed a special type of four jaw vice mounted on a bench frame that was strong enough to hold a heavy duty power drill which would turn a cutting tool. Eli welded channel and flat pieces of steel that ended up as a tool to

NHS THANKSGIVING DINNER—On Sunday the Telstar High School National Honor Society provided senior citizens with a turkey dinner, door prizes and a time to socialize. The annual event was started about 20 years ago by Dan Hart NHS advisor at the time. Most of the food was donated by the employees of SAD44. Approximately 50 students (28 from NHS) worked all weekend preparing, serving and cleaning up. Approximately 190 people were served, with about 30 takeouts for shutins. Pictured here are (from left): NHS vice president Esther Pew, President Mark Emerson, THS principal Ted Davis and senior citizen Harry Kuzyk from Bethel. (Photo: C. Savage) fit Gary's needs exactly. The whole piece is about three feet long. Gary uses it to produce what I would call post and beam rustic furniture.

Checking up on the water main laying progress on the North Road, I found that 1.4 miles of the new pipe had been laid — it has reached Ellingwood Road — and seven hydrants have been installed. All the pipe has been distributed along the line of work and there is none left in the Angevine Park parking lot. At the Douglass gravel pit (west) where the new wells will be located, the well drilling truck has moved to the second test well site, so it looks like the first well is finished and ready for connection to the mainline when it arrives.

Steve Seames told me that at the last Bethel Masonic Lodge meeting, the secretary mentioned and made note of the fact that Oct. 19 was the 50th anniversary of the Masonic Lodge being at that location. Steve has a copy of the special program printed for the occasion in 1957 and e-mailed me a copy of it.

Since its organization in 1860 Bethel's Masonic Lodge had resided within the building on the corner of Main and Church streets. In 1906 the first building had burned and the present three-story building on the corner replaced it. The Masons maintained their lodge in the new building until moving to Chapman Street. In the 1950s the Christian Science society apparently dissolved and their church building became available to the Bethel Masons. The Chapman Street building was erected in 1924. But then we ran into a history mystery.

At this point Steve, Randy Bennett and I ran into a five-year gap in dates as to when exactly the move to Chapman Street took place. There is no question that the program says Dedication Exercises Saturday Evening, October 19, 1957. However, Randy Bennett found in the October 2, 1952, Citizen that the kitchen and dining room in the "new Masonic Hall" were used for the first time by Purity Chapter, O.E.S. Three of the lodge's officers listed in the 1957 program still live in Bethel, and we are hoping that they can clear this up for the record.

Saturday Arla Patch held her

They continue to show how committed they are to preserving and presenting great American music. They absolutely love what they do—and it shows!"

REAL ESTATE AND YOU

EVERY HOUSE HAS TWO PRICES

What you pay for a house is important when considering its resale value. Today's mortgage options are increasing the possibilities for homebuyers, so you should also take a close look at what it will cost you to live in the house.

Your monthly housing cost is the second figure to consider, and that cost is very much determined by current interest rates. Today's real estate market is very price-driven. Homes that are in the best condition and have the most attractive price tags are the ones that sell.

Diverse financing options and competition among lenders are giving many buyers the opportunity to buy a more expensive house or condo than they thought they could afford--and to buy it sooner. There are many creative ways to get into a home with a relatively small amount of money. Ask your Realtor to help you look at today's numbers--you may be pleasantly surprised.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling real estate, contact Cindy Hiebert at Mahoosuc Realty, 207-824-2771

Obituaries

RICHARD J. LeCOMTE

Richard J. LeComte of Upton passed away suddenly on Nov. 14, 2007 in Emporia, Va., while en route to Florida for the winter.

Richard was born in Lynn, Mass., a son of Mary Heaney and Alec J. LeComte. He graduated from Lynn English School in Lynn, Mass., and many U.S. Navy-related schools. He married Eleanor Nolan LeComte in 1950.

He joined the U.S. Navy in 1945 and served for 20 years, retiring as a chief petty officer in 1964. He was a veteran of World War II, the Korean War, and Vietnam War, serving on many ships. However, the aircraft carrier USS Antietam was his favorite.

Following Naval Service he was employed in the private weather sector at Murray and Trettol, Northbrook, Ill.

and Northeast Weather Services of Bedford, Mass.

Richard and Ellie moved to Upton in 1973. The following year he was elected to the Board of Selectmen and served as its chair for 31 years. Richard was known to be "tight-fisted" and watched closely every dollar of the town's money. His mission was keeping the taxes at an affordable level. He also was a member and chaired the Planning Board of Upton. He was a past member of the Parish Council of Saint Pius Church in Errol, N.H. He also was a past professional member of the American Meteorological Society.

For many years, he fed the deer and ducks in Upton but never hunted in those years. He was a practicing member of the "Under the Hill Gang" and enjoyed playing pool with its members.

He had a deep love of aviation and creatures that fly. He shared his love with his friend Arthur "Mike" Murphy of Bethel. Richard built many model HO gauge trains and was a fine modeler of large-scale airplanes. He had a vast knowledge of aviation and airplanes, having studied them since childhood.

He will be surely missed by his wife, relatives and friends.

He is survived by his wife; his brother-in-law, Dr. George Dougan; many nieces, nephews, cousins and many long-time friends. He was predeceased by his sister, Marilyn M. Dougan.

Donations may be mailed in Richard's name to a charity of your choice.
